

Maths

Find out more about each of our course areas by clicking the links below:

Maths GCSE

Functional Maths Skills

Maths

Maths GCSE

Who is this course for?	Adults who need a GCSE for progression into higher education or employment
Entry requirements	You don't need any qualifications but you will need to complete an assessment to demonstrate your maths skills are at a level to cope with the demands of the course.
What will I learn on this course?	You will <ul style="list-style-type: none">• follow the GCSE set syllabus• work towards the national qualification and your individual needs• develop your maths skills in number, algebra, handling data and shape.
How will I learn?	One three hour evening session per week or two daytime sessions per week, from September to June. There will be individual, group and class teaching, homework, practice papers and online resources.
What qualifications will I gain?	GCSE in maths.
What could this course lead to?	Job opportunities, higher levels of maths, access courses leading to professional qualifications in teaching and nursing for example or other courses at college or university.
Can I join anytime?	New courses start in September – you must join by the October half term or wait for the next year

Maths

Functional Maths Skills

Course family title	Functional Maths Skills
Who is this course for?	Adults who want to improve their maths skills for employment purposes or personal, health and wellbeing reasons
Entry requirements	There are no entry requirements. We have a course for you if you want to improve your maths skills. You will be given an assessment to check where you're at and then given advice about the correct level class to join.
What will I learn on this course?	You will <ul style="list-style-type: none">• gain confidence in using the maths you need for everyday life and work• work towards national qualifications• develop your maths skills in using numbers, measures, shape and space and handling data
How will I learn?	This course is one session per week. You will plan your learning with your tutor. You will be able to work at your own pace in the way that suits you best, for example in a small group, in pairs or on your own. You will also be given work to do at home.
What qualifications will I gain?	Functional Maths qualification
What could this course lead to?	This course can improve your job prospects, help you get onto a higher level Maths course or other courses.
Can I join anytime?	You can join the course at any time if there are places.